VIOLATION(S)

CONCLUSION SUMMARY

Based on the interviews with staff, the allegation that that staff at the facility will not stay in the room with napping children is substantiated. Caregivers Megan Sturdevant, Bobbi Pernikoff and Jane Weinhaus all confirm that once the children are asleep in the napping rooms, the staff will sometimes step out into the hallways. The door to the nap room is left open and staff will float in and out of the room but will be just outside the classroom with the napping children gathering belongings and doing other tasks.
